WE will thank our readers for all local occurrences in their immediate locality. If they do not wish to write a communication for the public eye, we will send a brief statement of everything of local interest to their respective communities. A list of names, dates, incidents, times, money, books, changes, etc. We will put them in form. The more facts of this kind we can get the better it will be for our readers. Who will do it?

The accounts of the firm of Jacoby & Schuman as far as sent out for collection are in the hands of the following persons:

Montgomery.—JOHN H. HETTLER; Easton.—BENJ. ZIMMERMAN, P. M.; U. J. CAMPBELL, P. M. Washington.—STEPHEN BALDY; Rockingford.—Central, and Ashland, —JOHN HARTMAN.

In Saginaw Township, bills for collection have been placed in the hands of MONTGOMERY COLE, to whom payment is requested to be made at the earliest convenience.

In Scott Township, all persons knowing themselves in arrears for subscription, and advertising, to the DEMOCRAT, will please make payment to JOSEPH LILLEY.

Read advertisement of C. W. Snyder's new and large stock of hardware, in today's DEMOCRAT.

MUSLINS, good and wide, going off rapidly, at J. J. ROBBINS' New York Store, in Bloomington, at 18 cts. per yard.

Dry Goods have come down! Just step into the store of J. J. ROBBINS if you desire to buy cheap dry goods.

Superior BILMEYER is still busy improving and beautifying the Streets. He met with some opposition from the "oldest inhabitants," when he first stuck the plow into the banks and gutters, but it soon passed away.

We call the attention of our readers to the sale, on Thursday next, of the personal property of Isaac Reichard, late of Madison township deceased. Mr. Reichard being at the time of his death, quite an extensive farmer, we are told that much valuable property will be sold.

For all those distressing and afflictive Maladies which originate in Scrophulous or enfeebled or vitiated state of the blood, the effect of Dr. Anderson's Iodine Water, a pure solution of Iodine dissolved in pure water without a solvent.

SALARIES OF ASSOCIATE JUDGES.—At the last Legislature the salaries of Associate Judges were fixed at the sum of five dollars per day for every day not exceeding fifty and for every day they are employed in excess of fifty, the sum of three dollars is allowed.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.—The proprietors of the Hagerstown Mail have brought suit to recover damages for the destruction of their office by mob, in May, 1892. Several other citizens have brought suit to recover for the destruction of their property from a similar cause. Those who choose to dance must pay the piper.

PROF. PRICE will walk a wire in the Grove, at Lime Ridge, on the 22d inst., the same day of the holding of a Pic Nic and Grand Festival, at that place. As a wire-walker Mr. P. is no superior if any equals in this country. Since he performed last in this country he has astonished the natives of Ohio, Indiana, and other western States, with his daring feats.

ENOS JACOBY has purchased of B. H. Stohrer his interest in the Confectionery Store at this place. The business is conducted by Widmeyer & Jacoby. They are both industrious young men, and will do a fair business. They have constantly on hand all kinds of confectioneries, notions &c. They also bake bread and cakes for this market; besides pay considerable attention to making ice-cream.

THE SHIP with the boatmen on the North Branch Canal is still going on. The Canal Company have taken steps and succeeded in opening up the navigation, and there are few boats that will run unless the freight is raised. The boatmen are leaving their boats and returning to their homes. It is hoped the coal operators will soon get together and arrange the matter satisfactorily to all parties.

"THE GLORIOUS FOURTH" will soon be upon us and as yet we have heard of no arrangements for its proper celebration in our town. We have had no demonstration in honor of this glorious anniversary by our citizens for several years, and we urge it upon all who feel the least spark of patriotism still glowing in their bosoms, at once to take steps in getting up a celebration of some kind in which all can unite in observing the day. Won't somebody take the matter in hand?

GRAND PIC NIC AND FESTIVAL.—The people of Lime Ridge and vicinity propose holding a Grand Pic Nic and Festival, in Mrs. CONNER'S grove, at Lime Ridge, Columbia County, on Saturday, the 22d inst. The Bury Band of Berwick will be in attendance to enliven the occasion with some of their choice pieces. A fine dinner will be served up by the ladies of the place. Addresses will be delivered by able speakers. It is the intention to appropriate the proceeds arising out of the sale of articles, &c., to the Lime Ridge Sabbath School. Should the weather be favorable it is hoped this Pic Nic will be largely attended.

It now appears that Maximilian was betrayed by Gen. Lopez for the sum of $48,000. The fallen Emperor behaved with distinguished gallantry.

PRETENCE has seen a photograph of Benjamin Wade, and says his face is so hard that a blacksmith might hammer out a horse shoe on it.

EIGHT YEARS AND ONE YEAR.—The expenditures of the federal government during Montre's administration of eight years amounted to only $104,363,446.

The taxes of the State of Pennsylvania for a single year now amount to that sum.

THE UNITED STATES TREASURY.—On Saturday last the United States Treasury held the largest amount of money ever held at one time since the organization of the government, to wit: $180,000,000, of which $102,000,000 were gold and $78,000,000 currency. This amount was reduced $10,000,000 by the maturing of the June compounds and interest, and the 15th inst., will be reduced $9,000,000 more by the interest on the June seven-thirties.

PROF. MACALLISTER will give four entertainments in Snyder's Hall, this place, commencing on Wednesday Evening, and continue his interesting performances on Thursday, Friday and Saturday Evenings, of this week. His advertisement will be seen in another column of to-day's paper. But to give you some idea of his entertainment, we will relate a few feats of the hundreds that he performs, as follows:

Fries eggs and turns them into brock bats; picks money out of a fellow's pocket, and makes a table tell his fortune; holds a handkerchief up by one corner and shakes out of it a dozen live hons, two roosters, half bushel hard boiled eggs and a quantity of patent egg beaters; swallows a bamboo fishing rod, eats a whole pig, and then lifts himself up by the straps of his boots, clear up to the ceiling. It is said that babies even cry to see Macallister, and boys have to be punished to keep them at home. He is a pupil of his father, Andrew Macallister, pronounced to be the greatest Wizard of the World, both in Europe and America. His performances change every evening, and are entirely original and novel. He gives away every evening one hundred elegant and costly presents, valued from fifty cents to four hundred dollars. Go and get the celebrated magician's splendid gifts, all for 35 cents.

The proceedings of the Democratic State Convention are published at length on the first page of our paper, to the exclusion of most of our general variety. We ask our readers to give them a careful perusal. The DEMOCRAT is the only paper in this Senatorial District that has given so much space to this matter. It will be noticed by the proceedings that J. R. HILMISH was Representative Delegate from Northumberland County, and at the instance of the Senatorial Delegate was made one of the Vice Presidents; Hon. PAUL LEIDY was Representative Delegate from Columbia and Montour, who was placed on the Committee on Resolutions; Hon. GEORGE D. JACKSON was Representative Delegate, and represented in part, with H. B. McKean, the counties of Bradford and Sullivan; and Wm. H. JACOBY, editor of this paper, was Senatorial Delegate, representing the counties of Columbia, Northumberland, Montour and Sullivan.

FIRE.—On Friday night last about the hour of midnight our citizens were aroused by the terrible cry of "Fire." The eyes of the hundreds of aroused sleepers were greeted with that peculiar glare of light which always fills the heart with horror. The large frame barn and stable of Mr. M. C. Sloan, situated in the heart of the town, was a mass of flame soon after the fire was first discovered. It was not closely connected with any other buildings except on the south side. Here was a frame dwelling within perhaps twelve feet of the burning barn; and it is owing to exertions of more than heretofore character, made by our citizens, that the fire was not communicated to this building. If this had happened the damage might have been serious indeed. As it was, Mr. Sloan lost his barn, and what is more distressing to think of, and what grieves the owner nearly as much as the loss of the building, is a favorite cow for which he had paid more than one hundred dollars, and also six fine thirty pigs perished in the flames. We understand the insurance is but about two hundred dollars.

The lad who fired the pistol and killed his comrade in Ulster twp., an account of which we gave last week, as soon as he saw the fatal effect of his careless act, threw down the weapon, ran away from the scene, and was nowhere to be found. As he did not return home during the night, search was made for him on the next day (Saturday), and also on Sunday. The whole region was thoroughly explored, and the pond known as Hovey Pond was drawn off. He was discovered on Monday morning, under his father's barn, lying in a heap, through, in a stiff and apparently senseless state. Dr. Mills of Ulster, was at once called to see him; and at the time of this writing, the lad is reported to be much better, though still greatly cast down in spirit, and strangely shy and taciturn. He is the adopted son of Andrew Morrison, and is fourteen years of age. The firing of the pistol is, we think, justly regarded as a shameful act of boyish rashness, rather than an act proceeding from any criminal impulse. Both the boys had happily associated together in their sports, previously, and this uniform agreement with each other in their associations, precludes the idea of crime. But such foolhardiness is shocking to contemplate.

The funeral of the deceased took place, at the Moore's Hill church, on Sunday, June 24, and was attended by a large and feeling congregation.—Bradford Argus.

An exchange speaking of the magic strains of a hand organ, says:

"When he played 'Old Joe Tray,' we noticed eleven pups sitting on their haunches in front of the machine, brushing away the tears from their eyes with their fore-paws."
